INDIVIDUAL MEMBERSHIP

Fee: 7,250 MXN*
The Mexican Council on Foreign Relations, COMEXI, is a nonprofit independent organization, dedicated to the analysis and debate of the major global trends and their impact on Mexico.

We seek to inform society with insightful up-to-date information and, influence Mexican foreign policy-making throughout discussion panels and working groups on the most pressing topics relating to politics, bilateral, trade and international relations that affect the country.

COMEXI’s membership consists of more than 500 associates, including recognized experts in various fields, global corporations based in Mexico, Mexican companies with an international reach, embassies, international organizations, and influential research centers.

COMEXI seeks to engage on a regular basis with the government, civil organizations, the private sector, and other relevant stakeholders, in order to motivate public debate on the issues and priorities that interest Mexican society the most.
BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Luis Rubio, President
Jaime Zabludovsky, Former President
Enrique Berruga, Former President
Andrés Rozental, Former President (Founding)
Sergio Alcocer, Vicepresident
Solange Márquez, Vicepresident

Advisors

Agustín Barrios Gómez
Cecilia Bilesio
Carlos Camacho
Magdalena Carral
Eduardo Guerrero
Eduardo Ibarrola
Beatriz Leycegui
Martha Mejía
Lourdes Melgar
Gustavo Mohar
Mauricio Reyes
Vanessa Zárate

Timothy Heyman, Treasurer
Miguel Jáuregui, Technical & Legal Secretary
Verónica Ortiz Ortega, Executive Director
COMEXI STAFF

Verónica Ortiz Ortega, Executive Director
Axel Cabrera, Special Projects
Carolina Castro, Memberships & Events
Constanza García, Info & Media
Gerardo Velázquez, Liaison & Coordination
Laura Flores, Administration
María Fernanda Ibarzábal, Memberships
COMEXI’s greatest value resides on the talent, diversity, and expertise of its members. We are always looking to affiliate Associates whose career path can broaden our own perspective and whose initiative advances the goals of COMEXI as a benchmark of our country’s international agenda.

All applications are reviewed by our Memberships’ Committee on a quarterly basis. Afterwards, they are presented to the Board of Directors for final approval.

To become an Associate, please submit the following documents for your application:

- Letter from a COMEXI Associate supporting candidate
- Letter from a COMEXI Associate endorsing candidacy
- Candidate’s resume
- Bachelors/Undergraduate Degree (proof of completion)
- Fill out the online application form: http://bit.ly/FormularioCandidatos

The accepted candidates will be notified and must cover the annual fee to formalize their admittance.

Discounts available for students and scholars

For more information, please contact:

correojconsejomexicano.org and membresias@consejomexicano.org
MEETINGS

COMEXI organizes regular meetings with prominent personalities from the national and international scene and experts on diverse subjects. Our events are “behind closed doors” (off the record) and are exclusive to COMEXI’s Associates (unless explicitly indicated otherwise). In addition, we invite our associates to take part in events that we co-host with our partners, in order to offer a wide variety of topics and speakers to our membership.

COMEXI follows the Chatham House Rule: no attribution, and encourages all members to express themselves freely, while always respecting the ideas, opinions and proposals of other members.

WORKING GROUPS

Our working groups encourage the discussion and publishing of policy documents with a professional, nonpartisan, nonideological perspective on subjects that are relevant to this country’s international agenda. The dialogues are focused on a particular issue that addresses the current global situation.

WEBINARS

We organize timely virtual gatherings giving our Associates the opportunity to have a virtual conversation with key personalities around the globe,
BENEFITS

CONTACT NETWORK WITH SIMILAR CENTERS THROUGHOUT THE WORLD

COMEXI maintains ties with distinguished think tanks and institutions in different regions of the world. This offers our Associates the opportunity of getting to know their activity programs, to have access to their publications and occasionally to take part in meetings.

PROMOTE PUBLICATIONS

COMEXI can promote publications from its members through its website and social media in order to contribute to position our country in the international agenda.

PARTICIPATION IN MEDIA OUTLETS

COMEXI encourages its Associates to participate in print and digital media, so as to give an informed opinion to national and international audiences within their areas of expertise.

Others:

- Free subscription to Foreign Affairs Latinoamérica magazine, published by ITAM
- Discounts in hotel chains in Mexico
The Young Members Program (PJ COMEXI) seeks to include a new perspective of the international agenda's issues and to also support the formation of new leaders in Mexico who are under 30 years old.

Currently, the Program develops activities and projects that support the leadership training of its members and allow networking with COMEXI's Associates with a long and outstanding career path, as well as with the group of Young Associates who are starting their professional career.

The Program also seeks to establish a network of young leaders in Mexico to debate and analyze the country's international relations, as well as to promote the professional, academic, cultural, and social bonds of a new generation. All with the extraordinary value of COMEXI's reputation.

Through the Program, the Young Associates have the opportunity of participating in events and media outlets.